Leola Potter

The annual staff of 1977-1978 dedicates this annual to Leola Potter whom has served our school since November 1947.

Leola's previous work was at Oliver and Greene Produce. She took the job at school because she believed it would be interesting to prepare food and work with school children. The biggest change in school children for Leola has been the kitchen moving from the Home Economics room to the Student Center to the present kitchen. She thoroughly enjoys having her own kitchen with modern equipment.

After working here for 31 years and raising a son and daughter Leola plans to retire and spend time with her hobbies of embroidery, needlepoint, seamstress and watching all sports that her grandchildren are involved in.

Leola says that she has really enjoyed watching children graduate and now THEIR children.

From the staff and the entire school we wish you "Happy Leola Potter's Day."

Homecoming '77

The excitement of Homecoming started a week early this year as students built floats for the parade. A bonfire was held Thursday night to start the event. Friday afternoon a parade was held followed by the football game Friday night. The crowning of the King and Queen was held in the gym due to heavy rain. Queen Kathy and King Jim opened the evening dance.

Pinocchio

PINOCCHIO a children's theatre play written and directed by Mr. O'Brien proved to be a smashing success with children of all ages. This show was performed to capacity crowds and a special children's matinee to the Greene Elementary School and local elementary schools. The cast included a large number of actors, dancers, and singers. A versatile set depicted the location of scenes as Pinocchio went about proving to the Blue Fairy that he was indeed honorable enough to become a real boy. Major acting roles were portrayed by J. Schaffer, Jeff Conry, Joe Conry, M. Bramer, E. Nixt, N. Watkins, K. Muhlenbruck, J. Pitcher, B. Brinkman, M. Schroeder, D. Hawker, S. Stanton, L. Nixt, S. Kittleson, C. Conn, P. Holtz, and J. Downing. A cast of eight dancers, seven dancers, and 19 chorus members rounded out the large cast.

BYE BYE BIRDIE

The Senior High Chorus put on the musical BYE BYE BIRDIE this spring. The action revolves around a musical rock star, an Elvis image played by Pat Nikolas, who has just been drafted in the army. The president of the recording studio, Albert Peterson (Monte Bramer) and his secretary, Rosie (Kathy Mulhenbruck) endeavor to pursue Conrad Birdie's contract by writing a hit as were the songs "Honestly Sincere" and "Put ON a Happy Face."

There sub-plot involved Albert and Rosie (Monte and Kathy) in a one-side-or-the-other-love affair.

There were comic characters to liven things up a bit, namely the Mac Afee family played by Brian Nettleton, Linette Nixt, John Anthony, and Cathy Stephenson; Hugo played by Dan Pitcher; and Mrs. Peterson, Albert's mother, played by Ellen Nixt. The remaining cast included; Nancy Watkins, Nancy Delp, Mitch Nordmeyer, Dave Meyer, Troy Menken, Lou Ann Daughenbaugh, Betty Krueger, Brian Parks, Greg Johnson, and Ranee Lindell who all performed in The Telephone Hour, a musical number among teenagers on the telephone.

The set was designed and constructed by Mr. Wayne O'Brian and his drama classes. Other members of the music and drama departments helped with lights, make-up, publicity, and art work such as Sue Becker, Jeff Conry, and Herb Decker.

'78 Prom

Class of '78      by Nerdo and the Offbeats

Wahlgren always preaching, Consie's digging graves,
Stotler's in the Navy, everyone knows Kay.
Sandra will marry Richard, Kari will marry Den,
Carmen runs a restaurant and Moe will always win.

Geser's building muscles, Parks is at the bank.
Gabby's counting air mail stamps and Skier's ego sank.
Needham's counting out his peers, Randy's pounding nails.
Jane's a robbin craddles, and Duffy's now in jail.

And the class of '78 had its dreams and they all thought they would change the world with their great works and deeds.
Or maybe they just thought the world would change to fit their needs.
The class of '78 had its dreams.

Rhonda flies the friendly skies, Shelly's fixin' hair,
Kelly runs a back hoe, and Skipper doesn't care.
Kathy works for the city, and OB's in Lab research.
Vonnie's pumping petro, while Brinkman always works.

Rindel's still is jumping, Heidi's got a drum,
Rhonda still loves Musky, and Kenny's just as dumb.
Anderson is coaching, Diana wants a mate,
Connie goes to college, and Rae Jean is on a date.

Sandy is a chaperone, Kathy Adelmund still stands tall,
Liz still loves those potted plants, Aliene plays basketball.

Joey teaches French Class, while Freeseman never falls,
Brinkman is a father, and Mr. Becker's a proud Grandpa.

Judy helps the needy, Linda is a nun,
Jolene is sitting babies, while Bryce is having fun.
Sherri married Duggan, Duggan's in the band, and the class of '78 is just slightly out of hand.

And the class of '78 had its dreams
But living life day to day is never like it seems.
Things get complicated when they get past 18,
But the class of '78 had its dreams.
Aw the class of '78 had its dreams.
